INDIANA CODE § 25-6.1

ARTICLE 6.1. AUCTIONEERS AND AUCTIONS

INDIANA CODE § 25-6.1-1

Chapter 1. Short Title and Definitions

IC 25-6.1-1-1 Short title

Sec. 1. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Auctioneer and Auction Licensing Act."
As added by Acts 1977, P.L.270, SEC.1.

IC 25-6.1-1-2 Scope of article

Sec. 2. This article provides licensing and registration for persons engaged in operating, conducting or otherwise producing auctions. No other agency or political subdivision of the state shall impose on a licensee or seller at auction any registration or license requirement or any license or employment fee or charge on account of such auction activities.
As added by Acts 1977, P.L.270, SEC.1. Amended by Acts 1980, P.L.163, SEC.1.

IC 25-6.1-1-3 Definitions

Sec. 3. As used in this article:

"Auction" means a sale transaction conducted by means of oral or written exchanges between an auctioneer and the members of the auctioneer's audience, which exchanges consist of a series of invitations for offers for the purchase of goods or real estate made by the auctioneer and offers to purchase made by members of the audience and culminate in the acceptance by the auctioneer of the highest or most favorable offer made by a member of the participating audience.

"Auction company" means any person or persons who, as a part of its business, arranges, manages, sponsors, advertises, or carries out auctions.

Each day during which goods or real estate are being offered for sale at auction shall constitute one (1) auction. A sale barn or livestock auction market that is used exclusively for the auctioning of livestock and is licensed by the Indiana state board of animal health is not an auction house as defined herein.

"Auctioneer" means an individual who is engaged in, or who by advertising or otherwise holds the individual out as being available to engage in, the calling for, the recognition of, and the acceptance of offers for the purchase of goods or real estate at an auction.

"Commission" means the Indiana auctioneer commission.

"Goods" means any goods, wares, chattels, merchandise, or other personal property, including domestic animals and farm products.

"Licensee" means any person licensed or issued a temporary permit under this article and, in the case of an auction house or auction company, includes the person required to obtain a license for such auction house or auction company.

"Organization" means a corporation, a limited liability company, a partnership, a trust (specifically including a business trust), a firm, an association, or any other form of business enterprise which is owned by two (2) or more individuals.

(b) An applicant for a license must:

- (1) be at least eighteen (18) years of age;
- (2) have completed at least eighty (80) actual hours of auction instruction from a course provider approved by the commission;
- (3) not have a conviction for:
 - (A) an act which would constitute a ground for disciplinary sanction under IC 25-1-11; or
 - (B) a felony that has a direct bearing on the applicant's ability to practice competently.

(c) Auction instruction required under subsection (b) must provide the applicant with knowledge of all of the following:

(1) The value of real estate and of various goods commonly sold at an auction.

(2) Bid calling.

(3) Sale preparation, sale advertising, and sale summary.

(4) Mathematics.

(5) The provisions of this article and the commission's rules.

(6) Any other subject matter approved by the commission.

(d) An individual seeking an initial license as an auctioneer under this article shall file with the commission a completed application on the form prescribed by the commission. When filing an application for an auctioneer license, each individual shall pay a nonrefundable examination fee established by the commission under IC 25-1-8-2.

(e) When applying for a renewal of an auctioneer license, each individual shall do the following:

(1) Apply in a manner required by the commission, including certification by the applicant that the applicant has complied with the requirements of IC 25-6.1-9-8, unless the commission has granted the applicant a waiver under IC 25-6.1-9-9.

(2) Pay the renewal fee established by the commission under IC 25-1-8-2.

(f) Upon the receipt of a completed application for an initial or a renewal license, the commission shall examine the application and may verify the information contained therein.

(g) An applicant who is seeking an initial license must pass an examination approved by the commission that covers subjects and topics of knowledge required to practice as an auctioneer. The commission shall hold examinations as the commission may prescribe.

(h) The commission shall issue an auctioneer's license, in such form as it may prescribe, to each individual who meets all of the requirements for licensing and pays the appropriate fees.

(i) Auctioneer licenses shall be issued for a term of four (4) years. A license expires at midnight on the date established by the licensing agency under IC 25-1-6-4 and every fourth year thereafter, unless renewed before that date. If the license has expired, it may be reinstated not later than four (4) years after the date it expired if the license holder meets the requirements of IC 25-1-8-6(c).

(j) If a license has expired for a period of more than four (4) years, the holder of the license may have the license reinstated by satisfying the requirements for reinstatement under IC 25-1-8-6(d).

(4) is a resident of a state that grants the same privileges to the licensees of Indiana; and

(5) includes with the application an irrevocable consent that actions may be commenced against the applicant. The consent shall stipulate that service of process or pleadings on the commission shall be taken and held in all courts as valid and binding as if service of process had been made upon the applicant personally within this state. If any process or pleading mentioned in this subsection is served upon the commission, it shall be by duplicate copies. One (1) of the duplicate copies shall be filed in the office of the commission and one (1) shall be immediately forwarded by the commission by registered or certified mail to the applicant against whom the process or pleadings are directed.

(l) The commission may enter into a reciprocal agreement with another state concerning nonresident applicants.

(m) The commission may, for good cause shown, upon the receipt of an application for a license, issue a temporary permit for such reasonable period of time, not to exceed one (1) year, as the commission deems appropriate. A temporary permit has the same effect as a license and entitles and subjects the permittee to the same rights and obligations as if the individual had obtained a license.

(n) An applicant for a temporary permit must do the following:

(1) File an examination application.

(2) Pass the examination at one (1) of the next two (2) regularly scheduled examinations.

(o) An individual who does not pass the examination required under subsection (n) may not be issued a temporary permit.

STEP TWO: Subtract the amount determined under STEP ONE from four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000).

STEP THREE: Determine the number of licensees who had licenses in effect on June 30 of the current year.

STEP FOUR: Divide the number determined under STEP TWO by the number determined under STEP THREE.

(b) The auctioneer commission shall assess the surcharge described in subsection (a) against each licensee who:

- (1) receives an initial license;
- (2) receives a renewal license; or
- (3) receives a temporary permit.

(c) The auctioneer commission shall assess the surcharge described in subsection (a) for the two (2) year period beginning on July 1 of the current year through June 30 of the next odd-numbered year.

Sec. 4. (a) If any aggrieved person obtains a final judgment in any court against any licensee to recover damages for failure to meet the obligations of a licensee under this article and the rules adopted under this article (with or without findings by the auctioneer commission) that results in an actual cash loss to the aggrieved person, the person may, upon termination of all proceedings including appeals and proceedings supplemental to judgment for collection purposes, file a verified application in the court in which the judgment was entered for an order directing payment out of the auctioneer recovery fund of the amount of actual and direct loss in the transaction that remains unpaid upon the judgment. The amount of actual and direct loss may include court costs but may not include attorney's fees or punitive damages awarded. The amount that may be paid from the auctioneer recovery fund may not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) per judgment and an aggregate lifetime limit of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) with respect to any one (1) licensee.

(b) This section applies only to a final judgment that awards damages for an act by the licensee described in subsection (a) that arises directly out of any transaction:

As added by P.L.256-1987, SEC.4.

Sec. 5. (a) If the payment in full of two (2) or more pending valid claims that have been filed by aggrieved persons against a single licensee would exceed the fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) limit set forth in section 4 of this chapter, the fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) shall be distributed among the aggrieved persons in the ratio that their respective claims bear to the aggregate of all valid claims or in any other manner that a court of record may determine equitable. This money shall be distributed among the persons entitled to share in it without regard to the order of priority in which their respective judgments have been obtained or their claims have been filed.

(b) Upon petition of the commission, the court may require all claimants and prospective claimants against one (1) licensee to be joined in one (1) action, to the end that the respective rights of all the claimants to the commission may be equitably adjudicated and settled.

(c) On June 30 and December 31 of each year, the auctioneer commission shall identify each claim that the court orders to be paid during the six (6) month period that ended on that day. The commission shall pay the part of each claim that is so identified within fifteen (15) days after the end of the six (6) month period in which the claim is ordered paid. However, if the balance in the fund is insufficient to pay the full payable amount of each claim that is ordered to be paid during a six (6) month period, the commission shall pay a prorated portion of each claim that is ordered to be paid during the period. Any part of the payable amount of a claim left unpaid due to the prorating of payments under this subsection must be paid (subject to the fifty thousand dollar ($50,000) limit described in section 4 of this chapter) before the payment of claims ordered to be paid during the following six (6) month period.

Service of process under this section shall be made as nearly as practicable in the manner prescribed by the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure for service on corporations.

When any person commences an action for a judgment that may result in an order for payment from the fund, the person shall notify the commission in writing of the commencement of the action.

The court shall conduct a hearing on the application, and it may issue an order directing payment out of the auctioneer recovery fund, as provided in section 9 of this chapter, subject to the limitation of section 4 of this chapter, if the court finds:

- (1) that there is no collusion between the judgment creditor and the judgment debtor;
- (2) that the judgment creditor is making application not more than one (1) year after the termination of all proceedings in connection with the judgment, including appeals and proceedings supplemental to judgment for collection purposes;
- (3) that the judgment creditor has caused to be issued a writ of execution on the judgment and the officer executing the writ has made a return showing that no personal or real property of the judgment debtor liable to be levied upon in satisfaction of the judgment could be found or that the amount realized on the sale under the execution was insufficient to satisfy the judgment;
- (4) that the judgment creditor has diligently pursued the creditor's remedies against all the judgment debtors and all other persons liable to the creditor in the transaction for which the creditor seeks recovery from the auctioneer recovery fund;

(5) that the failure to meet the obligations of a licensee under this article and the rules adopted under this article arose directly out of a transaction that occurred when the judgment debtor was licensed and acted in a capacity for which a license is required under this article and that the transaction occurred after December 31, 1987; and
(6) that, in the event of a default judgment or a judgment entered upon stipulation of the parties, the judgment debtor's acts constituted failure to meet the obligations of a licensee under this article and the rules adopted under this article.

As added by P.L.256-1987, SEC.4.

IC 25-6.1-8-9 Payment of claim

Sec. 9. Upon a final order of the court directing that payment be made out of the auctioneer recovery fund, the commission shall, subject to sections 4 through 5 of this chapter, make the payment out of the auctioneer recovery fund as provided in section 5 of this chapter.

Affected: IC 25-6.1-2-5; IC 25-6.1-6-1

Sec. 34. Sale by Auction. (a) In a sale by auction if property being sold is put up in lots, each lot is the subject of a separate sale.

(b) A sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer so announces by the fall of the hammer or in any other customary manner. Where a bid is made while the hammer is falling in acceptance of a prior bid, the auctioneer may in his discretion reopen the bidding or declare the property sold under the bid on which the hammer was falling.

(c) Such a sale is with reserve unless the property being sold is in explicit terms put up without reserve. In an auction with reserve the auctioneer may withdraw the property being offered for sale at any time until he announces completion of the sale. In an auction without reserve, after an auctioneer calls for bids on property being offered for sale, such property cannot be withdrawn unless no bid is made within a reasonable time. In either case a bidder may retract his bid until the auctioneer's announcement of completion of the sale, but a bidder's retraction does not revive any previous bid.

(d) If the auctioneer knowingly receives a bid on the seller's behalf or the seller makes or procures such a bid, and notice has not been given that liberty for such bidding is reserved, the buyer may at his option avoid the sale or take the property at the price of the last good faith bid prior to the completion of the sale.
